

FASHION ON THE INTERNET

Manolo.se is the premier style guide for men in Sweden. We write about clothes, shoes, accessories and grooming on a daily basis.

Every week we reach an initiated target group that is strongly engaged in the site's content.

Visitors are style-conscious with considerable experience of the Net, and they influence their surroundings in their way of dressing.

The basic ideas behind Manolo is to offer quality content online, which permeates both the design with its large inspirational pictures, as well as the advertising format and our in-depth reports and articles. We don't believe in either fast shopping tips or fanatically following the latest trends. Manolo is all about finding the perfect shirt, suit with the best fit or leather shoes with the right finish. Garments to be worn in all situations.
