

GOLF AS A LIFESTYLE

There are over half a million active golfers in Sweden and they generally spend more money on cars, housing, travel and clothing than the average Swede. Education level is often higher than average and monthly income as well. They are committed and passionate, and willing to invest in their golf, equipment, training and travel. The same holds true for the magazine they choose to read.

In 2022, we have launched Svensk Golf Premium. A service where our subscribers can take advantage of favorable offers from our advertisers, exclusive events and experiences all year round. (<https://www.svenskgolf.se/prenumerera/>)

Svensk Golf is the most subscribed golf publication in all of Europe. This is achieved through vibrant journalism, driven by what our reader's crave. The keyword for our editorial direction is passion and this is applied to every part of the magazine. From instructional content to longform features, interviews or equipment tests.

Number of readers: cirka 75,000–100,000
