EGMONT

Utemagasinet is the magazine for those who love an active outdoor lifestyle. We cover everything related to hiking, paddling, trail cycling, trail running, cross-country skiing, long-distance ice skating, classic touring, and ski touring.

With years of knowledge as our foundation and a keen eye for new outdoor trends, we inspire both small and big adventures. It could be anything from building a fire by a lake and making your own campfire coffee to planning and executing a hike in the Swedish mountains or a ski touring week in Norway. What equipment is needed? Where are the most beautiful views? What do the local experts say? You'll find the answers in Utemagasinet.

In each issue, we present detailed tests of highly relevant clothing and/or gear for outdoor life and sports. We also showcase product news and write in-depth articles on topics such as sustainability, functional materials, innovation, and outdoor trends
